10	defined so that you will not be in a position where you	10	you got to go fight parking, and then sit down over
11	would be losing something which you had before, and	11	there. And then, you know, for me they're already
12	which you may not enjoy there later on.	12	kicking me off the podium, you know what I mean. Us
13	MS. PALTIN: Yeah. Yeah. There's I mean,	13	guys pay them, you know, they they get paid for
14	that was just the tip of the iceberg on questions. Like	14	listening to us.
15	we have so many policies and procedures that they we	15	And I think like you guys giving us five
16	asked if we were going to keep, like days off selection,	16	minutes, you guys don't even get paid, you know what I
17	training and lunch procedures, and things like that.	17	mean. You guys don't even get paid, you guys giving us
18	And there was like, well, after we make the switch,	18	five minutes.
19	we'll sort it out. So that's why it's I mean, do you	19	Five minutes, plus two-minute extension would
20	want to jump from the frying pan into the fire?	20	be better, you know what I mean. Make it work it. I
21	Right now, we know what the situation is. And	21	mean, sorry, you know what I mean. Because a couple of
22	then we're going to be going to a situation that's kind	22	the Council people are, pau, yeah, but we might here all
23	of unknown. And I can kind of see how people would look	23 24	day. Too bad, you know what I mean. We vote you guys in there.
24	at it as a good thing. But if it's a good thing, won't	24 25	So that's one of da kine, you know what I

I don't know if that was something that you had on tonight's agenda	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	MEMBER HASHIMOTO: I noticed the gentleman sitting there, making a lot of notes when we came in. So he may have some questions on what we have here. So you might ask him if he has questions. MR. GAYTAN: Yes, I do have some questions. CHAIR STONE: Okay. We did close oral testimony, Cliff. MEMBER HASHIMOTO: He's not testifying; he just has some questions. CHAIR STONE: Well, how about I do this? I'll tell you what we'll do. I'm sure some of the Commissioners will be interested, but I think I think we have to stick with our process. We'll close this, and I'll sit here and listen to what he has to ask, no problem. All right? Okay. Commissioner Hedani. VICE-CHAIR HEDANI: Chairman, I would like to move to suspend the rules so we can take questions from (Applause.) CHAIR STONE: Very nice to have you. Thank you for coming out and supporting us. So I'm going to open it up to discussion amongst our Commissioners? We haven't seen each other since noon today. It's good to see you all again. So is there any discussion amongst the Commissioners on any of the discussion tonight? MR. KALUA: Chair, if I may, prior to your arrival, that envelope in that brown pamphlet that's in front of you, I was asked to give that to you from Mike Molina from our office. And there wasn't enough brochures, I was assuming, to hand out to the entire Commission. So I already handed them out.
